In attendance: Dan, Jonny, Somil, Amy, Aravind, Yasir, Camilla, Kaushik, Rick, Carmen, Austin

Yearbooks:

The contract has been received and is under review. Before signing, New Paramount will be asked to outline quality control regarding items like vetting of photos for the composite. The MBAA will cover the costs of yearbooks at an approximate $24/book, as well sitting fees for composite photos.

Academic:

Sue is en route to China followed by vacation; she will be available via email remotely.

Sustainability:

Entrepreneurs want to change their club name. There is currently no process in place. This will be added to the list for discussion on constitution review.

Black & MacDonald have erroneously charged us for some items. Exec are asked to do a visual check at any events they attended.

Black & MacDonald is working to readjust to suit train schedules, after errors were identified in a new schedule implemented last week.

TD would like to offer a financial planning seminar. MBAFA is being consulted to determine viability of the project. General feedback has been that timing may be off to fully benefit students.

International:

Tiri has reached out to Professor Bose to discuss tax implications for international students. Professor Bose has offered to hold a short workshop on this. Details to follow.

Kaushik:

Winter Bound is looking good. There are 7 rooms booked. There are planned events for Friday and Saturday nights with info sheets provided. All rooms must be booked by Wednesday.

DeGroot Hockey:

The DeGroote Hockey team pitched for funding to attend a hockey tournament in Boston to promote the DeGroote brand. They asked for $1500 funding and it was approved with a majority vote.

Constitution:

Tiri will be heading up the constitution moving forward.

Action Item: Inquire on attendance on the Tim Horton's event.
